

LUMBERMEN LOOK FOR MUCH BUILDING

Too Early to Make Predictions But Indications Are Favorable.

Local lumber dealers claim it is too early to make forecasts about the amount of building to be done in Appleton this season, but all admit prospects look very favorable for a busy year. They base their predictions on the number of inquiries that are being made. With the fact that the price of materials they feel that the cost of new residences and business blocks will come within the reach of those who have delayed building until the market got down to a firm basis. Retail dealers are selling building material either at a loss or close margin. One dealer claimed if labor would come down in proportion to the cut in lumber he was satisfied the coming year would be unprecedented in the building line. Labor is one of the most important factors that enters into new buildings and until it adjusts its prices there is bound to be a certain amount of idleness. There is very little lumber moving at present and it will be thirty or sixty days before the demand picks up. Owing to the fact that they have just paid their taxes people are not buying lumber now and retailers are not buying from wholesalers. This is the prevailing condition throughout the state, according to lumber salesmen who visit Appleton. Early in the winter farmers were planning on doing a great deal of building the coming season, but the heavy losses suffered by them in the reduction in the price of grain and farm produce generally have caused them to change their mind.

"OUR CHURCH" IS ISSUED SUNDAY

Congregational Newspaper Is Replete With Items About Activities.

Members of First Congregational church received the February issue of "Our Church," monthly church newspaper, Sunday. Many copies were also distributed Saturday by boy scouts of troop No. 8.

The issue contains many interesting items about the church's activities. A picture of scout troop No. 8, one of the strong contenders for the anniversary week pennant, appears on the front page, and there is also a review of scout week activities.

Announcements for the Lenten season include mention of two cantatas to be rendered the Sunday preceding Easter by the combined choirs of the church. There is also to be an every member social visitation on March 6 to stimulate interest in the church and to induce constituents to join at Easter. Committees from the membership will make the visitation. It is called a "call without a halt; not yours but you."

Meetings and activities of various organizations during the last month are written up, together with items about persons in the church. The paper is gotten up in an attractive way and is eagerly sought by the members each month.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. These little olive-colored tablets are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. The pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel. Let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "loggy" and "heavy." They "clear" clouded brain and "perk up" the spirits.

Strong Hearts And Good Heads Pave Way To Real Success For This Couple

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Steffenson's Success Is Described in Current Number of Agricultural Journal.

"How a city girl and an immigrant boy found happiness and plenty on a Wisconsin farm and made their dreams come true."

A romance equal to anything produced by an author of fiction is contained in those headlines in a recent issue of the Wisconsin Agriculturist. A glance at the names and pictures shows it to be an Appleton family. Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Steffenson, who operate a large dairy farm near the city limits on Calumet-st. It is a story that pays tribute to the ambitions and perseverance of these two people.

The story starts with the time when Steffenson arrived in this country from Denmark and engaged as a farm hand on the present farm, which was owned by the late Ole Nelson. Making good, he was allowed to operate the farm for the aged proprietor. He was successful enough to add an additional 60 acres to the original forty.

Steffenson took over the farm when Nelson died. He married about this time, and Mrs. Steffenson at once took an active interest in the task of developing a successful farm. The article says of the couple:

Explodes False Notion
"There are a number of popular notions exploded in the farming experience of Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Steffenson. One is that the day of the poor man's opportunity is gone and that it takes so much money to start in farming nowadays that there is no chance for a young couple with only stout hearts, good heads and strong wills. The history of the Steffensons proves the fallacy of that."

"Another notion that they, or Mrs. Steffenson in particular, is daily disproving is that a refined, educated young woman born and bred to city life can not go to the country and and happiness and success after reaching maturity.

Good Hope farm, as the place is called, came into prominence a few months ago when the young Holstein bull, Sis Ormsby Abbecker Korndyke, was sold to E. N. Murphy, Green Bay, for $20,000. Mrs. Steffenson is given credit for her interest in procuring this valuable animal for the farm. It was purchased with money that she had saved when she taught school and did dress making. The sire cost $5,000 and was bought from J. M. Hackney, Minnesota. They kept him for more than a year and have a number of his descendants in their present herd of about 50 pure bred Holsteins.

Mr. Steffenson got his start in the pure bred business when he purchased three cows from E. O. Mueller of this county for $600. They were Johanna Payne May, Appleton Fair Second and Johanna Clyde Pieterse Third, and not only were made the foundation for his herd but are still retained by him. The present herd sire is Sis Juanita Segis Pontiac, one of the famous Piets Laura Ollie Homestead Pontiac King.

Keep Careful Record
Good breeding and milk production records are part of the secret of Mr. Steffenson's success, the article further states. "They were the result of the courage to expend liberal sums for the best strains of Holsteins, and the care in building up a herd from good matings."

Production records at the Steffenson farm are among the highest in the county. Johanna Sergis Aggie Harbetta produced 31.58 pounds of butter fat on a seven day test, and 597.1 pounds of milk at five years old. Appleton Fair Second gave 27.5 pounds of butter, 580.5 pounds of milk. Her best day was 84.5 pounds of milk. Johanna Clyde Pieterse Third produced 34.6 pounds of butter, 634.1 pounds of milk. Other commendable records are recorded in the story.

Interesting incidents in the conduct of the farm are related. One tells how Mrs. Steffenson made and delivered 150 pounds of butter each week in Appleton, together with a quantity of cottage cheese, during the war. This was discontinued a few months ago. When farm hands refused to fill a silo with sunflower fodder, Mrs. Steffenson took her place inside and hauled it all.

Heavier crops of corn and alfalfa were raised on clay soil by Mr. Steffenson, after he had placed six inches of drain tile on 90 acres of his land. The crops were almost a failure before this was done, but there is a large, even yield each year now.

NEAR EAST RELIEF GETS SCANT AID

County Has Raised Less Than $1,000 of $11,000 Quota Reports Show.

Outagamie county appears to have turned a deaf ear to this year's appeal for funds for the Near East Relief. Reports recorded in the "Badger Star" up to Feb. 7 show total contributions of $840.72, while many other counties have anywhere from $3,000 up to $12,000.

This county's quota was 250 Armenian orphans requiring $50 a year for support, or a total of $12,500. With contributions hardly up to the $1,000 mark, a tremendous amount of activity is necessary to obtain the additional funds.

Last year's quota also was $15,000.

and the contributions totaled well over $12,000. Churches, fraternal organizations, civic societies, industrial groups and individuals pledged to support from one to a dozen orphans. This year they have not come forward with the same offers to help the destitute children, although a campaign has been in progress here. Officials in charge of the work hope to save Outagamie county from being at the foot of the list and it is possible that new efforts will be made shortly to increase the funds.

Read these important facts about one of the greatest of all energy-producing foods for your children

Leading food experts will tell you that the food element that gives the greatest amount of energy to the body is just what Karo contains a large percentage of. This element is Dextrose—the great energy food. You couldn't live long without Dextrose. Most foods you eat—such as bread, starchy vegetables, and all forms of sugar—have to be changed into Dextrose before your system can really use them as energy foods.

These are scientific facts, as any doctor or food expert will tell you

So Karo, having such a large percentage of Dextrose in it—may almost be called a predigested food. Send for the booklet mentioned below and read the interesting facts. Yet Karo is much more than a wholesome nutritious food. It's a dainty, relished by every member of the family—on hot biscuits, pancakes or waffles for breakfast; baked in cakes, or used to stew fruit for lunch, or used to sweeten the foods served for supper. Give the children lots of sliced bread and Karo. It's the most wholesome food you can serve them.

Confessions Of A Bride

(Copyright 1920)

THE BOOK OF DEBORAH

I Go With Deb To Chang Foo's Prepared For An Adventure

"Jane, be reasonable, dear! Don't go to Chang Foo's!"

Thus Deb continued to plead as I turned her car into the boulevard. She had positively refused to drive me to the Chinese restaurant. When I insisted that I would go alone to the place and break up Ann's party with Van, and return the reckless babe safely to her invalid husband, Deb had reluctantly taken her seat beside me.

We parked our car among scores of machines, several of which we recognized. Neither Deb nor I had ever crossed the threshold of the famous place. It was smart but not "nice," familiar to some of the men but to only a few of the girls we knew.

The promise of an adventure thrilled me and helped me to forget my personal miseries. Within the hour, Bob had seen Ted Moore kiss me, "the best little sister a lonely chap could discuss his love affairs with."

My husband had driven his car out of our yard on a reckless curve. Where had he gone?

I was terribly worried because Bob drives carefully in some of his pre-occupied moods. His spasms of jealousy was simply absurd. But he would make me pay! I was not to blame, but he would make me suffer! I could only guess how. And I did guess.

"Bob will cure like with like. One glance from Katherine's green eyes will make him forget his green-eyed jealousy."

The main room of Chang Foo's place was filled with a noisy cigarette-smoking crowd, so large that one could come and go almost unobserved. Deb took command of our expedition. She asked for a secluded table and as soon as we were seated, we surveyed the saloon, searching for the tiny figure of Jim Lorimer's irresponsible little bride.

"The place was so decorated that it hurt the eyes, so noisy that it hurt the ears; the wit and music so banal that no mentally alert person could long endure them."

Oldish over-dressed women smoked, joked and danced with youngish over-dressed young men. All were so sophisticated that I wondered how they could stand for the flattery they were swapping.

Older men were smoking, joking and dancing with very young girls, whose charm was an obvious belief in the flattery the men showered out to them. A mature man of any sense would have been bored to death by the silly chatter of those uneducated misses in short skirts.

My adventure had lost part of its promised thrill. Like many another girl I had learned to cross Chang Foo's mysterious threshold. Once inside the hazy door, I found the place utterly wearying. The only charm it had was the charm of the forbidden. Others, married, like Ann, considered it exciting to smoke across a table from a man of many amours, like Van. The scene not only wearied me it disgusted me.

Deb finished her survey by locating Ann, then settled down to give our order. She was much relieved, too much relieved, it seemed to me.

"Deb, you look as if you were well pleased not to drink somebody in this place," I laughed. "Who is it?"

A woman's laugh floated to me in a pause of the oriental dance music. I knew the magnificent contralto quality of that laugh. I understood what price I was paying for Ted Moore's undesired kiss.

Adventures of the Twins

Olive Roberts Barton

"To the Star"

The eagle, or rather the wicked Bobadil Jinn, for he it was, flew away leaving Nancy and Nick alone on top of a bare rock above the clouds.

"What shall we do, Nick?" shivered Nancy. "It is getting dark and I'm cold and hungry."

Nick put his arm around her protectively. In the other hand he still held his magic box of charms. "I'll have to think, Nancy," he answered. "We still have our magical shoes, but as the jinn said, they are of no use to us now, nor are any of our charms. Above the clouds, here, we cannot tell north from south."

It grew darker and the stars came out. They seemed quite near up there on the mountain top, and the children felt comforted. One bright star kept staring and staring. Finally it spoke. "Say, little children, what's wrong?"

And the children told it about their journey to the South Pole after the lost toys.

"Goodness," said the star. "Come up here and I'll help you. Your Magic Shoes will bring you safely. Hurry for I can see the eagle returning. The wicked jinn may have changed his mind about the charms and he may take them away."

The star was right, for at that very instant Nancy smelled hyacinth, and new that the jinn was near. No matter what form he took, he always smelled of his favorite perfume.

"Will you do me a favor?" asked the star.

"Certainly," said Nick politely. "Then pull me the little white mountain flower growing out of the snow beside you, please. It looks so much like a star, I think it must be related to us."

Nick plucked the flower and holding it tightly in his hand, spoke to the Magic Green Shoes. Instantly they were in the air, traveling through the sky.

Steen's, Miss.—"I was all run down and nervous with female troubles and my sides pained me so at times that I could hardly walk. I suffered for four years with it. ## GIRLS WANT TO STIR UP MORE SPORT PEP Massmeeting Is Scheduled for High School to Arouse Interest.

The recreation department of the Appleton Womans club will have a mass meeting at 8 o'clock Tuesday evening in the high school gymnasium. This will be the first meeting of the kind since the organization of the club and will be held between halves of a basketball game to be played between the Red Sox and the Indians, two teams of the department.

All club members have been invited to attend free of charge and non-members will not be admitted.

The recreation department has acutely felt the need of an auditorium in which to hold mass and "pep" meetings of this kind. The purpose of this meeting is to generate "pep" for the coming games, and to stir up enthusiasm among members to back the team.

Miss Laura Rogers, chairman of the song and yell committee, will present a number of new peppy compositions which will be practiced at the game.

The following lineup will be used:

News of Interest From County and State

STATE NEEDS CASH BUT DOESN'T KNOW WHERE TO GET IT

Can't Raise Property Tax and Surtaxes Won't Bring Much Revenue.

(Special to Post-Crescent.) Madison—The governor's financial message is still in the making. Complications have arisen causing the executive to discard his original drafts of the message and tackle the subject from a new angle.

Administration leaders admit the problem is complex. At any other time a tax boost would have been advised as the proper solution. The industrial depression and the deflation in the value of farm products resulting from the possibilities any increase in the general property taxes, income and surtax boosts will be attempted but the added revenue will not only go part way towards relieving the situation, members of the legislature say. The business depression has caused a drop in incomes as well as farm products, legislators say, in expressing serious doubt as to the amount of actual revenue to be derived from this source.

Many well informed members of the two houses, in studying the problem, contend that it simmers down to juggling with a deficit. Such men as Wallace Ingalls, assemblyman from Racine, are of the opinion a large deficit must be accepted and a means of financing it found.

Ingalls believes the deficit will run into millions and advocates the borrowing of the unused highway funds to tide the state over the next two year period. This was the central idea when he introduced the joint resolution and brought the highway commissioners and the state highway engineer before the joint session of the legislature last week. This conference indicated that at least ten million dollars of highway funds would not be used this year.

Whether Governor Blaine is prepared to accept a deficit as inevitable, not even those close to the administration are prepared to say. The governor is reticent about giving his views on the situation until after his message is entirely framed and ready for presentation.

It is known that he wants to reduce the general property tax and that he has gone into the problem with this idea in view. It is generally accepted as true, that he will ask the legislature to shift highway tax burdens from the general property taxpayers to the owners of automobiles and trucks.

It is also known that he has received complete financial reports from the various departments and institutions to determine the disposition made of appropriations granted at the special session of the legislature in 1920. These appropriations, as well as emergency appropriations granted by the emergency board, were largely into increased salaries and traveling expenses. It is possible the governor will bring out some interesting facts relative to salaries and he may make some recommendations tending to equalize them. If he does, it is safe to predict, the equalization will have a downward tendency.

LANDIS DENOUNCES TREATMENT OF VETS

More Than 1,000 War Veterans Hear Famous Jurist Talk at Marshfield.

Marshfield—More than one thousand former service men were present Sunday morning to hear an address by Federal Judge K. M. Landis, who spoke at the first annual meeting of the post commanders and adjutants of the Wisconsin department of the American Legion. He thrilled his audience when he declared that if he had the power he would turn loose five army corps of useless government employees and get rid of an enormous amount of soldier correspondence, the value of which as paper exceeds the total of the claims made.

Backs Legion Plan
Judge Landis declared that the legion bill to centralize authority in one responsible head would be effective and that it was selfish on the part of civilians not to stand by the mer service men in need of medical attention. He added that he was sorry that he was not eligible to be a member in the legion as he would treasure such a privilege and offer to assist the body in every way in his power.

Declaring that civilian sacrifice during the war consisted mainly of giving up bacon for breakfast, Judge Landis said that the present situation was similar to that which followed the civil war when it was most difficult to get through. He said that the country owed to soldiers who had been wounded. He said that if the job was not done by legion men it would not be done. He asserted that "pin heads, two by fours and deuces and trys in public affairs" sneer at the legion because of its accomplishments.

Refers to Dial
In reference to his recent dispute with United States Senator Dial, the judge said that he was not worried for Dial has taken his troops and retired to a quiet sector. He added that if no action had been taken by March 4, he would himself ask for an investigation of Dial's charges by the senate.

In relation to the attack made by Representative Welty, who charged that Landis was trying to get laws passed by the legislature of Illinois, the judge stated that he was trying to make it made a felony for bailplayers to bet on games and said that there must be no betting or bribery in the game. He asserted that he felt that he was lucky in drawing the men he did as his enemies.

In the afternoon session, addresses were delivered by Lemuel G. Bolles, national adjutant, National Vice Commander Emory of Michigan, and State Commander McCauley of Illinois.
The meeting closed with a general resolution to increase legion membership in Wisconsin to 50,000 before July 1.

DETERMINED TO FREE COUNTIES FROM NURSE TAX

Opponents of Compulsory Nurse
Bill Are Facing Desperate Fight.

(Special to Post-Crescent.)
Madison, Wis.—Assemblyman J. J.
Lamb's bill making it optional with the county board as to whether or not a county nurse shall be employed is facing a fight on the floor of the lower house this week.

After a lengthy hearing and a still longer discussion by the assembly committee on state affairs, the bill was recommended for passage by a divided vote and the minority report, which will be submitted by Chairman A. E. Matheson, will recommend that the bill be indefinitely postponed.

The county nurse bill was passed at the 1919 session of the legislature after one of the hardest fights on the floor of the entire session. Since then more than two thirds of the counties have employed nurses, and according to the reports of the state board of health, the good accomplished by those nurses has been of inestimable value.

It has been reported to the legislature that the bill to make the employing of the nurse optional with the county board developed from the fact that in a few counties such nurses are employed by the Red Cross. "That speaks very highly for the Red Cross," declared Assemblyman Matheson today when discussing the bill, "and too much credit cannot be given to that truly wonderful organization, but should this bill be passed for the benefit of those few counties where the county nurse is supported by the Red Cross it would only give other counties the excuse for not having any nurse, and the good accomplished by those nurses is worth too much to permit any county to be without at least one visiting nurse."

It is said if the bill cannot be killed an amendment will be offered which will require each county to employ at least one county visiting nurse unless one is supported by some other means.

The Misses Pauline Stammer and Mabel Gotay are visiting at Seymour, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Abel and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stammer. They will return Wednesday.

MOST DRASTIC OF ALL AUTO BILLS IS BEFORE ASSEMBLY

Would Imprison Violators of Auto Rules—Must be 18
to Obtain License.

(Special to Post-Crescent.)
Madison, Wis.—Approximately half a million dollars annually will be added to the county good roads funds if the bill introduced by Senator George L. Buck, Racine, becomes a law. The bill provides for a license for every owner, operator or driver of any motor driven vehicle, except railway engineers or motormen and the operator of farm tractors used exclusively on the farm.

It is provided that the license shall be issued by the county clerk under the direction of the railroad commission on conditions provided by the commission. If a license is denied an applicant he may appeal to the commission within ten days.

The county clerk is to receive 25 cents fee for handling the license, while the applicant shall pay $2 for the license fee. The receipts from the license fees, after paying the cost of the administration of the law, are to be turned into the county good roads fund.

Among the provisions of the bill is one which places the minimum age for a license to operate an automobile at 18 years. The holder of the license shall carry it with him or her at all times while operating the car and shall display it when required to an officer. The license would give the description of the machine with the number of the state license. This, it is claimed, would go a long way in preventing the theft of automobiles.

Another provision requires the owner of the machine to make an affidavit that he is carrying indemnity insurance of at least $5,000 in a licensed insurance company, unless he had been granted authority by the industrial commission to carry his own insurance on that ground that he is amply able and willing to pay such damages as he may cause.

One unique feature of the bill is that it provides no fines for violation of any of its provisions, all of the penalties providing for imprisonment instead of fines.

The bill is said to be one of the most drastic ever offered in any state, but is aimed at the protection of the public, and it is believed will stand a good chance of passage.

STATE DESCRIBES NEW SEWAGE DISPOSAL TANK

(Special to Post-Crescent.)
Madison—A system by which sewage may at small cost be disposed of safely from an isolated dwelling, school or industrial plant having running water is described by Frank H. King, plumbing and domestic sanitary engineer, of the state board of health, in a publication issued by that department.

The chief feature of the system, of which there are upwards of 2,000 in operation in Wisconsin in connection with homes, summer cottages, schools and small industrial plants, is a rectangular septic tank, 2x15 feet, with a minimum liquid contents capacity of 40 cubic feet. This will serve ten people; four cubic feet additional should be provided for each additional person, except for schools, where 2 cubic feet additional for each additional pupil will prove adequate.

Before installing such systems, it is advised that the domestic sanitary engineering division of the state board of health be consulted, especially where care is necessary to prevent the contamination of springs and other underground waters.

Keep that schoolgirl complexion

A firm, fresh and blooming skin, radiant with health and free from blemishes, isn't the attribute of early youth alone. Every woman can keep her schoolgirl complexion long after early youth has flown.

Proper care is the secret—care which keeps the skin in perfect health. This means the scientific cleansing which makes each tiny pore and skin cell active. You must use soap and water freely—you must use it every day.

But not harsh soap—not soap which dries and irritates. Select mild, soothing soap, which cleanses gently—soap with a smooth, creamy lather—soap made from the bland, cosmetic oils Cleopatra used.

Cleanser, tonic and lotion

This soap is Palmolive, delicately fragrant, and the attractive natural color of its beautifying ingredients.

Its profuse, creamy lather penetrates every pore, dissolves dirt, perspiration and excess oil secretions. The rinsing water carries them away. No clogging accumulation remains to make your skin coarse.

This gentle cleansing acts as a tonic, reviving tired nerves and muscles and stimulating each minute gland and capillary. This gives natural color.

It is lotion-like in its action, leaving your skin soft and smooth. Just add a touch of cold cream and you are through.

If your skin is very dry, or when you use rouge and powder, apply cold cream before as well as after washing.

If your skin seems soft and lacking in firmness, apply cold water liberally. This condition often follows the use of cold cream alone for cleansing.

This finest facial soap costs 10 cents a cake

This price is possible because we make Palmolive in such vast volume. The Palmolive factories work night and day. We buy the costly ingredients in enormous quantities.

You can't buy a better soap no matter what price you pay, because science can't make finer soap. But the price allows you to provide it for general family use, a luxury all may enjoy.

The beauty secret of ancient Egypt

This use of Palm and Olive oils as cosmetic cleansers is a beauty secret discovered 3,000 years ago in ancient Egypt.

The Greeks and Romans also knew their value. Palm and olive oils adorned their sumptuous marble baths.

Now in scientific modern days these same beautifying oils are combined in the most popular of facial soaps. They still hold first place as soothing, healing, beautifying cleansers.

APPLETON HIGHS TROUNCE FONDU BY 30-16 COUNT

Second Team Defeats Kaukauna While First Is Whipping Fond du Lac.

Two victories were credited to the high school Saturday night. The first team trimmed Fond du Lac by a score of 50 to 16, Kaukauna fell before the invincible second team in Alexander gymnasium by a score of 17 to 9.

Jacobson gave the balloon a start after about two minutes of play in the game in Fond du Lac when he scored the first field goal. A few minutes later, Jacobson was given a free throw but missed the shot and Friese caught the ball in its passage toward the other end of the hall and dropped a fifty shot for the second goal. The third basket was made by Dunn and at that time, Fond du Lac had warmed up. At the end of the first half the score stood 20 to 8 in favor of Appleton. Fond du Lac had secured three baskets and two free throws and Appleton had made 10 baskets.

In the second half the local team played largely a defensive game. The players devoted their efforts to keeping down Fond du Lac's score, but occasionally they forced the ball through their own basket. Appleton got the first marker in the second period and after that it was a case of one team following the other in making baskets.

Fondy made three baskets and two free throws in the second half, and the local players raised their score with five baskets. Roach left the floor in the last seven minutes of play and Courtney took his place. In the last four minutes Laughlin went into the game in place of Dunn.

The fact that the team was able to win from Fond du Lac on the latter's own floor after losing here a few weeks ago was due to the feeling of team spirit that has been instilled into the players by Coach Vincent. He said he drilled the players hard on that point until every one realized he was working only as part and not as the whole team. It was this spirit, the coach said, that won the game Saturday evening.

About 20 Appleton supporters accompanied the team and made their presence known to Fond du Lac footers.

The lineup at the beginning of the game was:

Dunn, center; Roach and Bloomer, guards; Jacobson and Friese, forwards.

The game in Alexander gymnasium between the second team and Kaukauna high school team did not prove as exciting. The players had little trouble in winning with a score of 17 to 9.

The lineup:

Johnson and Zussman, forwards; Gellispie, center; Hagen and Stodman, guards.

MORE VOTERS IN ELECTION AREAS

Census Shows Gain in Congressional, Senate and Assembly Districts.

Candidates running for congress in the Ninth district have a larger population to reckon with than 10 years ago, according to the 1920 United States census reports. There has been a gain of 23,281 inhabitants, furnishing perhaps more than 10,000 additional votes. Other divisions for election purposes also show gains. Most of the increases hold to an average in each section.

The ninth district includes Outagamie, Brown, Door, Florence, Forest, Kewaunee, Langlade, Marinette and Oconto counties. Their total population in 1910 was 225,359. It has grown in 10 years to 248,640.

The Wisconsin legislature is now considering revisions which probably will mean the transfer of Florence and Forest counties to another district. This matter is of little concern to politicians, however, because these counties are not densely populated and considerable campaign effort may be saved.

There is a gain of approximately 16,000 population in the Fourteenth state senatorial district made up of Outagamie and Shawano counties. The total in 1910 was 73,723 and in 1920 89,088. The Fifteenth district with Calumet and Manitowish counties took a similar spurt, although its population is smaller. The 1910 census gave 61,679; the 1920, 68,872. Winnebago county, which is the Nineteenth district, grew from 62,116 to 63,847.

A larger district, the second, borders on the north and includes Brown and Oconto counties. Its population jumped from 79,755 to 88,993. The Twenty-third district with Waupaca and Portage counties showed a gain of only about 4,000 inhabitants. The figures are 63,727 and 67,849 for 1910 and 1920 respectively.

Each assembly district of Outagamie county gained about 3,000 inhabitants, according to the census figures. The first district of which Appleton is a part, jumped from 24,871 to 27,581. The second had 24,231 in 1910 and now has 27,532. Shawano county with 33,375 population gained only about 2,000. Waupaca county gained less than 2,000, having 31,200 inhabitants now.

One district of the three in Winnebago county lost in population. It is the third, which fell from 20,107 to 19,90. The other showed small gains.

FARMERS INJURED WHEN CAR TIPS OVER

Henry Tank Touches Wrong Lever and His Auto Speeds Around Corner.

Henry Tank and son, William Tank, rural route No. 8, were injured while returning home from Green Bay at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon when they were pinned beneath their car near the McCarthy crossing between Kaukauna and Green Bay.

Henry Tank was driving and when he came to a sharp curve in the highway he started to slow down, but instead of putting his foot on the brake he touched the accelerator causing the car to round the curve so rapidly that it tipped over in the ditch, pinning the two occupants beneath.

The two men were soon released from their imprisonment by occupants of passing automobiles. The elder Tank was seriously but not fatally injured, while his son escaped with painful bruises. The injured men were taken to Kaukauna by Edward Nelson of Green Bay, given medical attention and taken home.

The automobile was badly damaged. The place at which the accident occurred is exceedingly dangerous and was the scene of 12 accidents last summer.

giving the first 21,302 and the second 22,555.

Brown county's first district jumped nearly 7,000. Its 1910 total was 29,999. Now it has 36,213. The second district almost stood still, climbing from 24,099 to 25,676. Calumet county grew from 16,701 to 17,228.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Voigt were Menasha visitors Sunday afternoon.

STILL ANOTHER CASE FACES LOAN WORKERS

Contrary to the general impression, there remains one more case growing out of the liberty loan campaign of 1919 still to be tried in circuit court here. Mrs. William Black, as guardian of four minor children, has filed suit for $50,000 against defendants in the other trials alleging the night visit at the Black home deprived the children of their father, John M. Black, said to be in an insane asylum. Mrs. Black charges her husband was made insane by the night visitors.

Mrs. Black was plaintiff in one of the suits which was dropped at the courthouse on Friday following the acquittal of the defendants in the Deini case. The last case is to be tried at the next term of court, it was said.

PRESBYTERIANS HAVE CHARGE OF MEETING

J. E. Pond and R. H. Starkey gave short talks at the meeting for men Sunday afternoon in the Y. M. C. A. The program was under the direction of Presbyterian men. Music was rendered previous to the meeting by Hoh's orchestra. During the meeting a cornet solo was given by R. H. Starkey and a vocal solo was rendered by F. S. Wheeler. Lunch was served to about 35 men. The program next Sunday will be in the hands of the Congregational men. H. H. Cole is at the head of the group.

About 15 members of the Pioneer group of the Y. M. C. A. went on a hike Saturday afternoon under the supervision of Dudley Pierce. Some of the boys cooked part of their meal. A general lesson in scouting was taken up by the party.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Herman Bushman, Emuly-st., Friday.

ARRANGE FOR ANOTHER SERIES OF "Y" MEETINGS

Wisconsin "Grown" Cotton

Luther Burbank has been put-Burbanked at Pettibone's store this week in connection with the annual white sale and carnival of cottons. Pettibone's store is thrived with an effective display of the cotton plant stimulated by the combination of thorn apple-trees trimmed with bells of white cotton. In years past, the white sale used for its decorative scheme the genuine cotton plant sent by express from Texas. However, this plan involved heavy express charges on the shipment and the plants rarely arrived in good condition. The present decorative scheme is the outgrowth of the cotton bell idea modified to meet the transportation difficulties.

Runaway Team Does Damage

An automobile owned by Ben Garrow and a buggy, owner unidentified, were damaged Saturday morning when a team of horses owned by William Young ran away from the public service grounds. The horses, without a driver, turned east on Collocene-ave., crashed into the buggy, tearing the harness of the horse and damaging the phills, and then ran into Mr. Garrow's automobile, bending one fender. Owners of the vehicles got together and adjusted matters after the horses were caught.

The Corset Must Always Precede the Gown

So many women make the mistake of fitting new gowns over old corsets and then, when ready to wear them, they buy a smart new corset over which the dress does not fit at all.

This store prides itself in its knowledge of corsets and the art of corsetry. Let our corsetieres introduce you to the feeling of assurance, of satisfaction in your general appearance, which comes only from being correctly corseted.

Maximum comfort, grace, durability and quality are features long established in our complete line of corsets. Included are Redfern, Modart, Warner's, American Lady, Gossard, Madame Lyla and P. N. New models in cotton and silk broadens—lace back and lace front at $10.00, $12.00, $15.00 and up.

(4th Floor)

Presenting a superb assemblage of all kinds of Cotton Fabrics at a new rock-bottom basis of cost.

This remarkable occasion follows the most drastic price readjustment that the cotton industry ever knew. Leading manufacturers got together a few weeks ago to create new lowest prices, that would be way down to rock-bottom; not only to create tremendous selling of all kinds of Cotton Goods for the sake of the industries; but also to establish public confidence in the prices that should be quoted by stores.

The Cotton Industries are among the most far-reaching in America. Cotton farmers and cotton workers, all through the South, from the Carolinas to Texas, have been menaced by disastrous losses, because people were not using the normal supplies of cotton goods. Millions of spindles and hundreds of thousands of textile workers in New England and all over the continent have been working short time or idle by reason of the same conditions, as you have read in the newspapers.

Now the Spring is coming, when every woman and girl wants several new Cotton Frocks, when men want new shirts; when housekeepers want new sheets and pillow cases—when the whole world has tremendous requirements in Cotton Goods.

It Is The Time To Buy Everything You Need In Cottons—

1. Because such splendid assortments are here.
2. Because prices are down to ROCK BOTTOM—less than they will be for months to come.
3. Because it will save the cotton industries from disastrous stagnation and the whole country from useless depression, if you simply BUY NOW THE COTTONS YOU WILL BE GLAD TO HAVE, at their lowest possible prices.

Come and see the remarkable collections and realize how small the new prices now are.
